She believes that knowing God's character is essential for nurturing trust, overcoming life's challenges, and living a victorious Christian life. At the core, Meyer affirms that God's character is consistent with the attributes described in Scripture—loving, merciful, just, faithful, and compassionate. However, her emphasis tends to highlight God's relational qualities, portraying Him as a personal, approachable Father who desires intimacy with each believer. Her teachings often focus on the transformative power of understanding God's character, which she contends can dramatically alter how individuals perceive themselves, others, and their circumstances.

God's Love and Compassion

One of the most prominent aspects of Meyer's depiction of God is His unconditional love. She frequently quotes passages like 1 John 4:8 ("God is love") to underscore that love is the essence of God's character. In her messages, she emphasizes that God's love is not passive but active—demonstrated through His care, patience, and willingness to forgive. Meyer often shares personal stories and testimonies to illustrate how recognizing God's compassionate nature can help believers cope with feelings of guilt, shame, or rejection. She advocates that understanding God's forgiving heart allows believers to extend grace to themselves and others, fostering healing and reconciliation.

God's Justice and Righteousness

While emphasizing God's mercy, Meyer does not shy away from His justice. She teaches that God's righteousness ensures that He is fair and just in His dealings with humanity. This duality—mercy coupled with justice—is presented as vital to understanding God's character holistically. She reminds her audience that God's justice is not arbitrary but rooted in His love—aimed at restoring and redeeming rather than condemning.
