Foundational Theology: God, Humanity, and Salvation

The opening sections delve into the essential doctrines—God's nature, human nature, and salvation. Knox emphasizes the importance of understanding these doctrines not merely as abstract concepts but as foundational truths that shape Christian life and teaching.

1. The Nature of God: Explores attributes such as omnipotence, omniscience, and omnibenevolence, highlighting their implications for human understanding.
2. Humanity and Creation: Discusses human dignity, sin, and the purpose of creation, framing these as central themes in theology.
3. Salvation and Redemption: Covers the significance of Jesus Christ's life, death, and resurrection, and how these doctrines underpin Christian hope.

Developing a Theological Framework for Teaching

Knox advocates for teachers to develop their own theological framework—an internal compass that guides their teaching and interactions in the classroom. This involves:

2. Understanding denominational perspectives and broader Christian doctrines
3. Recognizing the diversity of student backgrounds and beliefs

This reflective process ensures that teachers present theology authentically and sensitively.
