The Genesis and Evolution of A History of Christianity

Origins and Development

Latourette began developing A History of Christianity in the 1930s, a project that would span decades before its final publication in 1937, with subsequent revised editions. The work was ambitious in scope, aiming to provide a comprehensive narrative of Christian history from its origins to the mid-20th century. The initial editions were structured to cover: - The early church, including the Apostolic Age and the Patristic Period - The Middle Ages and the rise of Christendom - The Reformation and Counter-Reformation - The expansion of Christianity into Asia, Africa, and the Americas - Contemporary developments leading up to the modern era Latourette's approach combined chronological narrative with thematic analysis, emphasizing not only theological developments but also socio-political contexts, cultural exchanges, and missionary activities.

Influence on Christian Historiography
