The phrase “You have already got it,” popularized by renowned Bible teacher Andrew Wommack, encapsulates a powerful truth: that believers possess divine promises, blessings, and authority already given to them through Christ. This concept encourages Christians to walk confidently in their identity, realizing that they do not need to earn or strive for God's blessings—they are already theirs by faith. This article explores the profound teachings of Andrew Wommack surrounding the concept that believers have already obtained their spiritual inheritance. We will delve into the biblical foundations, practical applications, and how this truth can transform your daily walk with God. Whether you're new to faith or a seasoned believer, understanding and embracing this truth can revolutionize your perspective and experience of God's promises.

Understanding the Biblical Foundation of “You Have Already Got It”

Andrew Wommack's teachings are rooted deeply in Scripture, emphasizing that many of God's promises are already fulfilled through Jesus Christ. The phrase encourages believers to recognize their spiritual rights and privileges that are already in their possession.

What Does the Bible Say About Our Inheritance?

The Bible is rich with passages affirming that believers are heirs of God's promises. Key scriptures include: - Romans 8:17: “And if children, then heirs—heirs of God and joint heirs with Christ.” - Galatians 3:29: “And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.” - Ephesians 1:3: “Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ.” These verses affirm that through faith in Jesus, believers are already blessed and possess all spiritual blessings.

The Power of Faith in Receiving What Is Already Yours

Andrew Wommack emphasizes that faith is the key to unlocking the reality of what we already possess. It's not about asking God to give us what He's reluctant to provide but rather recognizing and receiving what has been freely given. Key points: - Faith is the agreement with God's Word that what He has promised is yours. - You don't earn blessings; you receive them by believing you already have them. - The spiritual realm operates on faith, and believing activates God's promises in your life.

You Have Already Got It Andrew Wommack: An In-Depth Exploration of Faith, Grace, and Spiritual Abundance

Introduction: Unlocking the Truth Behind "You Already Got It"

The phrase "You Have Already Got It" resonates deeply within the teachings of Andrew Wommack, a prominent Christian evangelist and teacher known for his straightforward approach to biblical truths. At the heart of Wommack's message is the empowering idea that believers already possess the spiritual blessings, healing, and provision they seek—by faith and understanding, not by striving or begging God. This concept challenges traditional religious notions that blessings are always future promises or conditional upon certain actions.

This review aims to dissect the core principles of Wommack's teachings encapsulated in the phrase "You Have Already Got It", exploring its biblical foundation, practical implications, and how it can transform a believer's spiritual walk.

The Biblical Foundation of "You Have Already Got It"

1. Understanding Grace and Faith

Andrew Wommack emphasizes that salvation, healing, and prosperity are gifts of grace—unmerited favor from God. The key is recognizing that:

1. Grace is God's free gift to humanity (Ephesians 2:8-9).
2. Faith is the means by which believers access this grace (Ephesians 2:8).

Core idea: Since grace has already provided everything, faith simply aligns us to receive what has been freely given.

1. The Biblical Evidence Supporting "Already Got It"

1. 2 Peter 1:3: "His divine power has given us everything we need for life and godliness."

This indicates that all spiritual resources are already available.

1. Ephesians 1:3: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ."

The past tense "has blessed" underscores that blessings are already secured.

1. Mark 11:24: Jesus said, "Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours."

Believers are instructed to believe they have already received—before they see physical manifestation.

1. The Role of Identification in Christ

Wommack stresses the importance of understanding our identity in Christ:

1. When we are born again, we are inseparably united with Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17).
2. All spiritual blessings are located in Christ and available to believers through this union.

Implication: Recognizing our identity in Christ helps us see that we already possess what He has secured for us.

Practical Application of the "You Have Already Got It" Principle

1. Changing Your Mindset

1. Renewing the mind is crucial (Romans 12:2).

Believers must shift from a mentality of lack and begging to one of abundance and faith that they already possess their blessings.

1. Speaking faith-filled words: Declaring what you believe you already have aligns your words with God's truth, activating faith.

1. Faith as a Receiving Act

Andrew Wommack highlights that faith is not about convincing God but about believing you have already received.

1. Steps to apply:

1. Identify the blessing or provision you seek.
2. Believe that it is already yours based on God's Word.
3. Speak as if you already have it.
4. Act in accordance with that belief (e.g., start living as if your healing is complete).

1. Overcoming Doubt and Unbelief

1. Doubt is the primary obstacle to receiving.
2. Wommack advocates meditating on the Word and speaking it continually to build faith.

1. The Power of Confession and Declaration

1. Confession is a powerful tool: "I have already received my healing," or "I am prosperous because God has already provided."
1. Consistent positive declarations reinforce faith and help shift mental and spiritual attitudes.

Common Misconceptions and Clarifications

1. "Are We Simply Claiming Things?"

Some critics argue that proclaiming blessings as already received can lead to positive thinking without faith. Wommack clarifies:

1. It's not about mental ascent or positive confession alone.
2. It is rooted in biblical truth and trust in God's promises.
3. Faith is believing it is so, even when it's not visibly manifested.

1. "Does This Mean We Don't Pray?"

No, prayer remains essential. Prayer aligns our hearts with God's will and reinforces our faith. The difference is:

1. Prayer becomes an act of thanking and declaring what we believe we've already received.
2. It's a response of faith, not a plea for God to do something He has already done.

1. "What About Waiting and Patience?"

Patience is about remaining steadfast while the physical manifestation catches up. Wommack teaches that:

1. Waiting is not about doubting but about trusting that what is ours by faith will manifest in due time.
2. Resting in the finished work of Christ is key.

The Impact of "You Already Got It" on a Believer's Life

2. A sense of spiritual authority, knowing they are not begging but receiving.

1. Overcoming Discouragement and Doubt

1. Recognizing that blessings are already ours helps believers persevere during difficult times, trusting that their breakthrough is already secured.

Challenges and How to Overcome Them

1. Struggling with Sight-Based Thinking

1. The physical circumstances often seem contrary. Wommack advises staying anchored in God's Word and speaking faith despite appearances.

1. Dealing with Unanswered Prayers

1. Sometimes manifestations are delayed. The key is remaining steadfast and not letting doubt rob your faith.

1. Building Consistent Faith

1. Regular meditation on Scripture and confession helps solidify belief in the already-received blessings.

It calls for a faith that rests in the finished work of Jesus, trusting that what has been secured in the heavenly realm manifests in the physical realm through faith and patience.

Adopting this mindset requires:

1. Deepening your understanding of biblical truths.
2. Renewing your mind through Scripture.
3. Speaking words aligned with faith.
