The novel opens with Aisha's return to her childhood hometown during the monsoon season, a symbolic motif that underscores themes of renewal and introspection. As she navigates her emotional landscape, the narrative delves into her relationships—particularly with her estranged father, her best friend, and a mysterious stranger she encounters during her rain-soaked days. Singh employs a layered storytelling technique, gradually revealing the events that led to Aisha's current state. Flashbacks are seamlessly integrated, providing readers with insights into her formative experiences, her love story, and the traumatic loss that shadows her existence.
